Patrol

19-21729 | 5:12 PM | Vehicle Accident With Injuries | Letsch, M | 01201 E Kings Hwy

There were multiple 911 calls reporting a serious MVA at traffic circle east. The investigation found that the cause of the MVA was a suicidal male who was attempting suicide utilizing his MV

The suicidal male who was 20 years old and while operating his vehicle struck a second car in the rear at an extremely high speed while traveling Northbound on Black Rock Turnpike near Kings Highway East.

After the collision the striking vehicle, continued north on Black Rock Turnpike and drove onto the grass at traffic circle east and up the highway embankment. The suicidal operator then exited the vehicle, ran onto I95 in front of traffic, was found by Officer Komm on the median divider of the highway, and was taken into custody.

19-23956 | 2:16 PM | Vehicle Accident With Injuries | Wells, K | 03330 Sturges Hwy

ECC reported receiving a 911 call from a woman who reported that a tree fell on a vehicle with 3 occupants inside (husband, wife and daughter.) The responding officers found a tree branch that had come through the windshield of the car and impaled the driver. The driver was transported to Norwalk Hospital where he was pronounced dead.
