Field Services Bureau

Press Release January 13, 2021

After requesting the help of the public and with the assistance of the media, Police received several tips which led to a potential suspect.

Fairfield Police Detectives discovered during the evening hours of 1/12/21, Emily Winters (65) of Pine Tree Lane, Fairfield, defaced the exterior walls of TJ Maxx, the foundation of the Tunxis Hill Corner Plaza and the driveway of McKinley School. Winters confessed to the vandalism when interviewed by Detectives.

On 1/27/2021 Emily Winters turned herself in at Police Headquarters without incident after a Superior Court Arrest Warrant was issued. She was charged with Criminal Mischief and released with a promise to appear in court on Feb. 12, 2021.

We'd like to thank the residence of Fairfield, our colleagues in the media, as well as social media groups for their assistance with identifying the person responsible. It's our continued partnership with our community that allows the successful resolution in many of our cases.

On January 19, 2021 patrol responded to a report of an attempted purse snatching at Stop and Shop on Kings Highway Cut-Off. A woman was walking to her vehicle when a young male ran up to her and attempted to grab her purse. She started screaming and the male ran back to a pick-up truck occupied by two or three other young males. This incident appears to be linked to two other purse snatchings that occurred in Stamford and Norwalk in which the suspects were operating a stolen Ford pick-up. This case is under investigation.
