The Fairfield Police Department participate in National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS) which was implemented to improve the overall quality of crime data collected by law enforcement. NIBRS captures details on each single crime incident—as well as on separate offenses within the same incident—including information on victims, known offenders, relationships between victims and offenders, arrestees, and property involved in crimes.

Definitions for NIBRS Offenses can be found at:

https://ucr.fbi.gov/nibrs/2019/resource-pages/nibrs_offense_definitions-2019.pdf

School Safety Division - February

The School Safety Division is responsible for creating a physical presence at assigned school(s) and school related events. School Safety Officers serve as an informational resource to staff, students, and parents on safety information and interpretation of law. The division is also responsible for the implementation of new safety and law curriculum and to serve as an educator to the student population at assigned schools. It further aides in enhancing physical security and security procedures at assigned schools and periodically assessing, identifying and reporting vulnerabilities at assigned schools.

The School Safety Unit Officers responded to a total of 578 calls for service, which included school checks, assistance, community events, EMS calls, and investigations for February 2025. In addition to the calls, 53 Shape Classes were taught; all while actively participating in numerous special events, training sessions, professional development opportunities and school activities.

HOURS 2025

February 2025

On February 15th, we recognized and celebrated the dedication of our Fairfield Police School Safety Unit, who work tirelessly to ensure the safety and well-being of students, teachers and staff in our schools. SRO do more than just protect, they mentor, guide and build strong relationships with students, fostering a safe and supportive learning environment. Their presence makes a lasting impact, helping shape the future of our community.

On February 17th, during the Police Commissioner Meeting, the Fairfield Police Department was able to recognize the bravery and selfless act of Erik Rahner.

On January 7th, 2025 Mr. Rahner was walking his dogs on the trails near Lake Mohegan, when he heard the desperate cries for help coming from the water in the Cascades. Without hesitation, he ran toward the source of the calls, and found Alicja Rydza submerged up to her neck, clinging to the ice, unable to escape the freezing water. Realizing that time was critical, Mr. Rahner did not wait for help. He became the help. Mr. Rahner jumped into the icy water, swam to Ms. Rydza and pulled her to safety. His quick thinking and decisive actions saved her life.

Mr. Rahner was honored with the Fairfield Police Department Life Saving Award for his bravery, selflessness, and willingness to put another's life before his own. His actions exemplify the very best of our community as a reminder that true heroism is not measured by words, but the willingness to act when it matters most.

February 2025

On February 25th, members of the Fairfield Police Department spoke at Fairfield University's Campus Connect Series, "Cybersecurity: Protecting Yourself in a Digital World" to explain the investigative process of cyber crime, and what the public can do to stay safe from internet scams.

At a recent Police Commission Meeting, Chief Kalamaras proudly accepted a plaque on behalf of the Fairfield Police Department, recognizing the dedication and support of the #PinkPledge this past October. This honor was presented by the Norma Pfriem Breast Center in appreciation of the Fairfield Police Department's commitment to raising awareness and supporting those affected by breast cancer.

The Pink Pledge is an annual campaign benefitting the Norma Pfriem Breast Center, which provides essential medical care, support services and financial assistance to individuals battling breast cancer. Through community involvement and fundraising, the initiative ensures that patients receive the care they need, regardless of their ability to pay.

On February 25th, School Resource Officer Cassandra Fusco visited Stratfield School to speak with 5th graders about making smart choices, handling peer pressure and strategies to deal with challenging situations. This was part of the SHAPE Program (Safety Health and Positive Environment). These core classes are taught to 5th graders across the district and include interactive discussion, video, written activities, scenarios and role playing.

Supervisory Recognition of Personnel

The following personnel were recognized this month for exemplary actions or achievements, regardless of when the incident or effort occurred. This section highlights outstanding contributions by team members who have demonstrated exceptional commitment and professionalism. The content below provides summaries of the actual commendations to emphasize the impactful work that earned these recognitions. Supervisor recognition is essential in building a culture of excellence, encouraging continued dedication, and acknowledging the exceptional efforts of our personnel.

Officer Seth Jenkins:

It is with great pride that we recognize Records Officer Seth Jenkins for his outstanding commitment to excellence in data accuracy and reporting. Office Jenkins has been awarded the Special Recognition - Error-Free Year certificate from the Connecticut Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection for his dedication to ensuring timely and accurate submissions to the National Incident-Based Reporting System.

This recognition reflects Officer Jenkins' meticulous attention to detail and professionalism in maintaining the integrity of our agency's records. His efforts not only support our department's transparency and accountability but also contribute to the accuracy of our statewide and national crime data. His hard work and dedication are truly commendable, and we are proud to have his contributions acknowledged at this level.

Supervisor Issuing Commendation: Captain Antonio Granata

Officer Paul Medvegny:

On January 8, 2025, during the course of an investigation, Joseph Soracco's firearms were seized (FPD File #25-1748). Mr. Soracco had an extensive collection, and in total, 28 firearms and various amounts of ammunition were taken into evidence. According to Mr. Soracco, Officer Medvegny meticulously organized everything, a total of 46 pieces of evidence, with care and respect.

On February 12, 2025, Mr. Soracco called the Fairfield Police Department to personally thank Officer Medvegny for his hard work and to express his "very high respect" for him. Mr. Soracco successfully navigated the legal process and was granted permission to possess his firearms again. During this process, Officer Medvegny went above and beyond by proactive working with the FFL holding Mr. Soracco's firearms to ensure their timely return before his upcoming surgery.

In his voicemail, Mr. Soracco emphasized how professional and polite Officer Medvegny was throughout their interactions, stating that he was always treated with respect, never judged or spoken down to, and Officer Medvegny never made any derogatory remarks.

This is just one example of Officer Medvegny's commitment to excellence. On a regular basis, he consistently demonstrates professionalism, attention to detail and a strong sense of integrity in everything he does. He is a dedicated officer who takes pride in his work and treats every individual with fairness and respect. His actions in this case reflect the same level of diligence and character he brings to his job each and every day.

Supervisor Issuing Commendation: Captain Antonio Granata

Detective Michael Mazzocchi, Detective Anthony Falbo and Sergeant Chris Ioli:

Detectives Mike Mazzocchi, Anthony Falbo and Sergeant Chris Ioli are formally recognized for their outstanding investigative work in solving the overnight residential burglary that occurred at 186 Old Spring Road on February 22, 2025. During this incident, the suspect entered the home while the residents were asleep upstairs and ransacked multiple areas of the house, stealing credit cards and personal belongings.

Through swift investigative efforts, including tracking fraudulent transactions on the stolen credit cards, canvassing the neighborhood and obtaining surveillance footage, Detectives Mazzocchi and Falbo, along with Sergeant Ioli, were able to identify and locate the suspect, Tyrone Doby. This case was investigated, and the suspect was identified and arrested within several hours of the burglary. Their coordinated efforts led to Doby's arrest and the recovery of stolen property. Their diligent fieldwork, including interviewing witnesses, collecting evidence and conducting surveillance, placed a critical role in swiftly resolving this case.

Supervisor Issuing Commendation: Captain Antonio Granata

February 2025

Supervisory Recognition of Personnel

Detective Brian Griffin and Sergeant Jenna Wellington:

Take a moment to recognize the outstanding participation of Public Affairs Sergeant Jenna Wellington and Detective Brian Griffin in Fairfield University's latest Campus Connect Series event, Cybersecurity: Protecting Yourself in a Digital World, which took place on February 25, 2025.

Sergeant Wellington and Detective Griffin represented the department with the highest level of professionalism, showcasing their extensive knowledge of cybersecurity in an engaging and insightful discussion. Alongside Fairfield University's School of Engineering & Computing Associate Dean, Dr. Mirco Speretta, they provided attendees with valuable information on protecting themselves in the digital space.

The conversation was relevant, informative and incredibly well-received by those in attendance. Their ability to articulate complex cybersecurity topics in a way that resonated with the audience was commendable and reinforced the strong partnership between the Fairfield Police Department and Fairfield University.

The Campus Connect speaker series continues to be an excellent platform for collaboration between the University and the broader community, and the contributions of Sergeant Wellington and Detective Griffin exemplify our department's commitment to partnerships, public education and outreach. They should be recognized for doing such an outstanding job.

Supervisor Issuing Commendation: Captain Antonio Granata

Officers Bridget VanSlyke and Tiffany Robledo:

Officers VanSlyke and Robledo should be commended for their outstanding proactive efforts in the apprehension of Domestic Violence Arrestee Brianna Pickens, who had an active PRAWN Warrant for failing to appear in court on her domestic violence charges.

Recognizing the importance of ensuring that individuals with outstanding warrants are held accountable, Officers VanSlyke Robledo demonstrated exceptional initiative by leveraging their knowledge of the subject's whereabouts, conducting surveillance at the Trevi Lounge, and successfully apprehending her without incident on 2/5/2025. Their dedication to tracking and arresting individuals who evade the judicial process is a testament to their commitment to public safety and victim protection. Domestic violence cases require swift enforcement and accountability, as failures to appear in court can delay justice for victims and increase the risk of further harm. By proactively seeking out and apprehending Pickens, these officers not only upheld the integrity of the legal process, but also reinforced our department's commitment to ensuring that those accused of domestic violence face the consequences of their actions. Their vigilance and initiative exemplify proactive policing at its best and they should be recognized for their dedication to ensuring the safety of our community.

Supervisor Issuing Commendation: Captain Hector Irizarry

Lieutenant Jeremy Zdru, Sergeant Michael Komm, Officers Anthony Renaldi, Nicholas Ardizzone, Eamonn Monks and Franck DeAngelis, Kevin Wells and Mark Letsch:

I am proud to nominate the officers of the Special Services Division Traffic Unit Officers - Anthony Renaldi, Nicholas Ardizzone, Eamonn Monks and Franck DeAngelis, along with Crash Unit Officers Kevin Wells and Mark Letsch led by Lieutenant Jeremy Zdru and Sergeant Michael Komm for the prestigious Unit Citation Medal. This distinguished recognition is granted to those whose collective efforts bring exceptional credit to the law enforcement profession, demonstrating outstanding teamwork and professionalism.

The members of this unit have consistently gone above and beyond the expectations of their roles, exhibiting diligent sustained effort in the performance of their duties. Their actions have had a profound impact on traffic safety in the town of Fairfield, as evidenced by a remarkable 252% increase in proactive traffic enforcement from the year 2023 to the current date 2025.

Through their cohesive and effective teamwork, these officers have set the standards for excellence in traffic enforcement, tackling critical issues with precision and dedication. Their enhanced focus on traffic safety has led to a significant and noticeable increase in public awareness, ultimately contributing to a safer community.

The tireless efforts of the Traffic and Crash Units have not only improved public safety but have also served as a model of professionalism and commitment to the core values of law enforcement. Their coordinated efforts reflect the true spirit of a traffic unit, marked by dedication, collaboration, and an unwavering commitment to the safety of the citizens they serve.

Supervisor Issuing Commendation: Captain Hector Irizarry

The Fairfield Police Department remains dedicated to maintaining a safe community, protecting life and property, reducing crime and the fear of crime and to performing its function in a manner which promotes public trust and confidence. The Department strives to achieve its mission through the core values of Professionalism, Honor and Excellence.
